Art Unit: 1625

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-2, 4-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by WO 96/17077. Note page 18, line 14, Table 5, compound IIc.

3. Claims 1-2, 4-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by CA 124:331460.

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 1-2, 4-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over WO98/21201 or CA 127:336721 or CA 127:362535 or EP 174,726 (page 9, line 29) or EP 302,720(example 1) in view of CA 124:331460.

The primary references WO98/21201 at page 19 lines 20-24 and page 20, lines 6-13 and CA 127:336721 or CA 127:362535 or EP 174,726 (page 9, line 29) or EP 302,720(example 1) all teach the racemate of the claimed compound. Since the racemate contains the R isomer one skilled in the art would know how to separate the racemate into individual isomer as taught in the secondary reference, CA 124:331460.

Art Unit: 1625

6. Claim 3 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
